Please note the following points regarding our BESPOKE SERVICE

- The colours in this book are for reference only. Due to the handmade nature of the rugs/kilims and the natural dyes along with various natural factors like individual sheep wool, weather conditions etc, the final colours on the finished product might be slightly different from the colours seen here.
- Please give us both your minimum and maximum measurements for the length and width of your required rug. These goods are made using time honoured loom techniques. Once the goods are off the loom there is a slight shrinkage possible therefore, the measurements can be slightly different than initially ordered.
- The wool used in this book does not represent the individual wool used for the production. The quality of wool varies from regions to regions.
- For complex designs and oversized rugs/kilims, there might be an additional surcharge on the price. Please always refer to the price quoted as per the individual orders.
